Amy is a very professional, organized, creative, responsive and one of the best photographers you can look for in West Island. We had a maternity and newborn shoots done by her. Just got the final pictures and they are awesome. Loving it!!!

I have been shooting with Amy since my son was born 3.5 years ago. When I found out I was pregnant again, I had no doubt I would see her for both my maternity and newborn shoots again. She's super nice and amazing with babies. I never hesitate to refer her! Always had a great experience with her!
